Road to CWMUN New York

1. By mid-December to early-March > UN Delegate Course:

to better prepare yourself with our tutors and acquire all the essential skills to play the role of UN Ambassador.

2. By the beginning of the course > Activation of the e-learning platform*:

ranging from video contents and additional educational resources useful to enrich your background about international relations and, more specifically, about the United Nations.

3. By the beginning of the course > CWMUN Talks' Sessions:

interactive, intertwined and international sessions. They are essential moments of debate where students coming from everywhere in the world and from different CWMUN teams get to know each other and start a two hours discussion about a specific topic via Zoom. To get to know the perspective that a colleague coming from Europe, Asia, Africa or America may have about a topic will help you open your mind towards new, still-unexplored, horizons.

4. Within mid-February, 2025 > Position Paper Submission:

Within mid-February, you have to submit your Position Paper to the Director of the Committee you will be assigned to. For the sake of clarity, the Position Paper is a document containing a brief introduction and a comprehensive breakdown of your country's position on the topic discussed. It must be sent prior to your arrival to the Conference by the set deadline. When writing the Position Paper, you must respect the "staying in character" principle, but do not worry: you will discover more during a dedicated class!

5. Within early-March, 2025 > Useful Information:

within early March, all important information regarding the Hotel Accommodation, the Schedule of Events and all the other practical details will be released for the sake of a good organization management.

6. March 6-7, 2025 > Change the World MASTERY:

a 2-day 'warm-up' event is an exercise in the mechanisms of Simulation, including the largest Mock Session with real-time working sessions via Zoom. It is an interactive experience combining committee work and brainstorming sessions with delegates from all over the world.

7. March 20-23, 2025 > Change the World MUN New York:

final event of the training program that will see you playing the role of Ambassador and live the unforgettable experience of working in the "City that Never Sleeps": New York!

- * The e-learning platform goes hand-in-hand with the live zoom lessons. Therefore, the majority of contents will be unlocked after they will be touched in the dedicated classes
- * UN Delegate Course attendance is compulsory in order to get both the CWMUN Boarding Pass and the Attendance Certificate. In case of justified absences, it will be possible to make up the classes. The CWMUN Talks' Sessions are not compulsory but strongly recommended in order to strengthen your CWMUN preparation
- * The schedule might be subjected to changes due to logistic necessities
